

Music Machine 20

Music Machine 20 is based on Holst's Ostinato from the St. Paul's Suite.

It has three options for performance.

One shot – this will play all 142 bars of the original work once only but in a random order.

Looped – this will play all of the 142 bars of the original work and will run indefinitely until stopped by the user.

Original – this plays the piece as it was written.
